MADRAS:

The saving in Madras is mainly due to the revision of estimate of the annual contribution to that Provincial Government.

BOMBAY:

The excess in Bombay is due to
(i) payment of difference of pay and dearness allowance as a result of the revision of pay sclae from the 1st January 1947 of the establishment,
(ii) purchase of filing racks and card index cabinets
(iii) legal charges and
(iv) grant of dearness allowance to additional temporary staff sanctioned.

WEST BENGAL:

The saving in West Bengal is partly due to the retirement of the old incumbants in the posts of Reigstrar and Assistant Registrar of Joint Stock Companies who were drawing the maximum of their scales of pay and partly due to the non-appointment of Banking Assistants.

UNITED PROVINCES.

The excess expenditure required is partly due to the creation of additional temporary posts and partly due to the revision of scales of pay wit effect from 1st April 1947.

East Punjab:

The nett excess in East Punjab is sue to the amount required for the pruchase of furniture in the new set up to the office after partition.

C.P. & BERAR:

The saving is due to the revision of scales of pay and allowances for the staff at Provincial Government rates.

ASSAM:

The excess in Assam is due to sanction of additional temporary staff and revision of scales of pay of the staff.
